I. General Instruction
1. Manuscripts should be written in English.
2. The manuscripts must be typed with double spacing on one side of Letter size (27.5×21 cm) paper and margins of at least 25 mm all around.
3. Each manuscript must be submitted in Triplicate with three sets of figures and tables, or one printed set of manuscript with disks storing the contents of manuscript (identify the software and machines used). Submission with disks facilitates editing processes, and is recommended.
4. Animal experiments should follow the guiding principles for the care and use of animals. For human experiments, draw attention to the Code of Ethics of the World Medical Association (Helsinki, 1964). Manuscript without ethical consideration will not be accepted for publication.

II. Regular paper should include the following section in the order listed below. Pages should be numbered consecutively beginning with the title pages.

1. The first page carries the title of the manuscript, names of authors, institutions, and address. A running title not exceeding 40 characters including spaces. Name and address for correspondence including telephone and Fax numbers and e-mail.
2. The second page should carry an abstract not exceeding 300 words presented in a concise form and including the purpose, methods, results and conclusion of the research described in the paper. A list of key words (less than 5) suitable for indexing.
3. Text of the full paper may be usually divided into following sections; Introduction, Methods, Results and Discussion. The References should be cited in the text by the author's name and the year of publication. For more than two authors, only the name of the first author, followed by et al., should be used in chronological order first and then alphabetically (Linkens, 1878; Burnstock et al., 1964).
4. Acknowledgments should be brief but should include reference to source of support. Sources of chemicals not widely available commercially should be acknowledged.
5. Reference list is to be arranged alphabetically by author in both full papers and review articles. The list should be prepared with names and initials of all authors, (year of publication), full title of article, name of journal (abbreviated as in Index Medicus), volume number, starting and ending page numbers. References to books should include: author's names, and initials of sir name, edition year in parentheses, title, publisher's name, place of publication.

Examples:

6. Legends for figures should be typewritten with double spacing on separate sheets.
7. Tables of numerical data should be typed with double spacing on a separate page. Each table should be assigned a number and brief title. A brief heading and caption should be provided for each table.
8. Figures should be reproducible as one column-wide printed illustrations. Good glossy print should be submitted in size legible. All figures should be identified with figure numbers and name of the first author on the back of each figure. Cost of color reproduction will be charged to the authors.
9. The appropriate location of each table and figure in the text must be indicated on the left margin of the manuscript.
10. Page charges. There are no page charges for this journal.
11. Offprint. Offprint may be purchased using an order form which will be sent to the corresponding author with the galley proof.

The copyright of the article published in the Journal is transferred to the Publisher, the Editorial Office of the Japanese Society of Smooth Muscle Research upon acceptance of the manuscript.
